

AIR NEW ZEALAND

LOS ANGELES INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT LOUNGE Fact Sheet

- OVERVIEW: Completed in August 2005, Air New Zealand's newly-expanded international lounge at Los Angeles International Airport (LAX) allows passengers to relax and refresh while surrounded by a design based on the natural elements of New Zealand. The lounge provides seating for 150 people and offers a range of "zones" to meet the diverse needs of today's international travelers.
- ELEMENTS OF NEW ZEALAND: New Zealand culture carries over into every aspect of the space, including the materials used to design the interior of the lounge itself, ensuring travelers begin to experience elements of New Zealand before they even board the plane. Highlights include:
- Pau laminate made from the inside of abalone shells indigenous to New Zealand and carpet made from pure New Zealand wool
 - Elements of New Zealand culture are brought to life through the paintings and photographs of famous Kiwi artists
 - Refreshing Living Nature skincare products, a brand only available "down under"
 - A wide selection of fresh food inspired by the unique flavors of New Zealand including an excellent selection of New Zealand wines and beers as well as cocktails made with New Zealand-based 42 Below Vodka
- LOUNGE ZONES:
- Quiet Zone: Passengers wishing to read a book, magazine or newspapers can enjoy the lounge's dedicated "quiet zone," which also includes a large library table stocked with information on New Zealand.
- Business Zone: The expanded business facilities include additional internet connections, a photocopier and printer, seven work stations with PCs, dial-up and broadband internet access for laptops as well as free WI-FI access.
- Family Zone: A dedicated play area for children is complete with interactive game consoles and plenty of activities to keep kids of all ages engaged.
- Refreshing Zone: Travelers can take advantage of six shower suites to refresh themselves prior to boarding the aircraft.
- Relaxation Zone: Comfortable seating arrangements include custom recliners designed to allow tired travelers to catch up on sleep or snuggle with a good book.
- HOURS: 11 a.m. – 11.30 p.m. daily.
- ACCESS: Business Premier class passengers, Air New Zealand Airpoints Gold and Gold Elite members, Air New Zealand Koru Club and Star Alliance Gold members.
